

Darrell Garbacik

Director Category
Inducted October 2012

Darrell Garbacik joined the NSA family in 1994 as a Park Director at Michigan City Park and Recreation. Darrell became the Indiana NSA Baseball State Director in 2001 before we changed over to BPA in 2003.

Darrell's many accomplishments over the years include:

- * Co-Chairman of National BPA Advisory Committee
- * National BPA Director of the Year – 2007 & 2009
- * National BPA 110% Award – 2005 & 2006
- * BPA World Series Participation Award – 2009 & 2010
- * NSA/BPA Northern Zone 110% Award – 2002, 2003 & 2004

During his many years with NSA/BPA, Darrell has been a Tournament Director for many NSA Fast Pitch, NSA Slow Pitch and BPA events including State and World Series tournaments. Darrell is very rules oriented and very confident and methodical in dealing with the teams, the parks and other directors. Darrell strives to have the best program in the country and promotes the NSA/BPA programs at every opportunity he is given. Darrell is a very positive person and always willing to step up and assist.

For those milestones and accomplishments in November of 2012, Darrell Garbacik became one of the first two BPA Directors inducted into the BPA Sports Hall of Fame. He is going in at the same time as Jared Bratcher as the first two BPA Directors.
